Dear Friends:

I am honored to have this opportunity to send my personal greetings to everyone associated with the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts as you celebrate your 355th Anniversary.

Over the years, your organization has stood in the front lines to champion civic responsibility and patriotic service. Your continued dedication to a recognition of our nation's rich heritage and to volunteer efforts for a better community is essential to the future success of our nation.

Please accept my warmest best wishes and congratulations.

Dear Friends:

It is indeed an honor and a pleasure for me to extend my anniversary greetings to the membership of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

In March of 1638, Governor Winthrop granted the Charter which established the first military company of the Western Hemisphere. The newly formed group, providing the first military protection to the people of Massachusetts, was indeed a proud assembly. Today, 355 years later, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts remains the embodiment of what it has always stood for, the best in citizenship.

My best wishes to you in the year to come.

Dear Friends:

It is our pleasure to extend our best wishes to the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

Although the Company was founded primarily for the military protection of our early settlers, through the years it has participated in all aspects of our nation's development. Its members have been among the leadership in the law, commerce, public affairs, and the Church, and have been benefactors to numerous charitable causes.

Today, you are continuing the traditions of your forebears by your support of the principles on which our great nation was founded. We are proud of the part you play in our Commonwealth.

Our best wishes to you all and congratulations on the occasion of your 355th anniversary.

Dear Fellow Ancients:

It is indeed my pleasure to add my best wishes and thanks to the Officers and Sergeants of the Company as we conclude the 1992-1993 year.

The support of Captain Sacco and all members of the Company to the many activities of the National Guard ranging from hosting worldwide conferences to the historic and continuing sponsorship of the Massachusetts Military Academy is greatly appreciated by me and all the members of the Guard family.

A special congratulations to the 1992-1993 Sergeants for the many charitable and civic contributions they made. Any Officer knows that the Non-commissioned Officers are the backbone of the Corps. This has never been more true than in the case of the present group.

Again, congratulations on a job well done and a great year. Best wishes in the future as we strive to continue the traditions here in the Bay State "Where It All Began".

SGT GEORGE R. MIGNOSA

THE SERGEANTS

The archives of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts contain an entry dated March 13, 1638, indicating that Governor Winthrop granted a charter to the Military Company of Massachusetts. The records of the "Company" reveal that on the first Monday in June, 1638, Robert Keayne was elected the first commander and John Oliver and Joshua Hughes elected Sergeants.

Richard Morris, a charter member of the company, served as Sergeant in 1637 and Thomas Savage, another charter member, is noted as serving as the Company's first Orderly Sergeant. Thus began the traditions of Sergeant's service to the Company that has survived to modern times with little change.

Today, candidates for Sergeant of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts usually begin planning a year or two in advance and join forces with other Ancients to prepare a campaign for election to the office for the year of their choice. Each candidate must declare his intention to seek the position of Sergeant of Infantry or Sergeant of Artillery. Nominations are held on the first Monday in May. Elections are held at the Second Regular Meeting in May and along with other commissioned officers, six Sergeants of Infantry and six of Artillery are elected.

The seniority of the Sergeants is determined by popular vote with the First Sergeant of Infantry being the "Chairman" for the group. At the ceremonial Drumhead Election on June Day, on Boston Common, the new Sergeants assume their responsibilities as they receive their Espontoons and march off the Common to host their first hospitality event prior to the June Day Banquet.

The ensuing twelve months are filled with great activity; meetings, financial matters, social functions, parades, the Fall Field Day Tour of Duty, funeral details and the Year Book.

During the course of the year, relationships between the Sergeants establish bonds as close as brothers, which last the rest of their lives.

Note:
Being a Sergeant in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery perhaps was best described by LTC Jack Drummey: "Most men wouldn't take the job again for a million dollars . . . or trade the experience for two million."

My thanks to Captain Leonard J. Sacco and his staff for a great year. I am pleased to have had the opportunity to be of service to this Grande Olde Company.

Personally, this past year in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company has been one of the most gratifying and I wish to thank my comrades for electing me as Sergeant and allowing me to serve in this capacity, as did my father and grandfather before me.

Being An Ancient Is More Than Uniforms & Brass

The membership of the Ancients is comprised of individuals and achievers, one reason why our Company is so respected. Our members are leaders in their communities, businesses, and social happenings throughout Massachusetts.

It is an Ancient tradition for members to support each other and to follow through with their commitments. They work very hard at keeping their names and the name of the Company noble, untarnished and respected.

The Ancients — and Ancient traditions — are known for another reason: their sense of humor, their ability to have fun — the greatest good times — when they are together. At the moments when they are working hard at a tough project, they can "break it up" with a joke or two. The Ancients are known for their hearty, good clean fun. The "lighter," laughing side of the Ancients sets them apart from all other organizations.

Sergeants are so busy at being Sergeants, keeping everything admirable and cheerful for their comrades, that they may at times miss the "lighter side." They're busy, busier, busiest. But their delight and satisfaction comes from watching the rest of the guys find the brighter side.

SERGEANTS' YEARBOOK 1992-1993

Dear Fellow Members of the Ancient and Honorable
Artillery Company of Massachusetts,

I should like to thank everyone for their sincere support by offering help, and guidance in so many ways so that this year's Yearbook can be completed in its present form.

I realize that due to the current state of our economy, many of our comrades, and friends could not participate as readily as they did in previous years, and despite these conditions my fellow sergeants, and I would like to thank all the advertisers for their show of support.

There are so many individuals that were supportive - many of whom I do not have room to mention, however, we must all agree that special thanks must be given to the following personages:

A. My Fellow Sergeants.
B. SGT. Paul E. Lennon - The Bailey Press.

D. Caricature Art Work - LTC. John "Jack" D. Drummey.

JAMES MONROE

The 5th President

4 March 1817 to 4 March 1825

He was a Virginian and succeeded Madison. He was the fourth President from Virginia. He had been Secretary of State and of War under Madison. His administration is known as the "era of good feelings." There was no political strife. Upon re-election Monroe received all but one of the electoral votes cast. The dissenting vote was cast by an elector from New Hampshire who declared that only Washington should have the honor of a unanimous election.

James Monroe was born in Westmoreland County, Virginia, on 28 April 1758. In 1776 he enlisted in the Continental Army where he served with distinction. After the War he studied law and served in the Virginia Legislature; and, in 1790 he was elected to the United States Senate. He represented the United States in France, Spain and England. He negotiated the Louisiana Purchase. He was twice Governor of Virginia. Monroe married Elizabeth Kortwright of New York in 1786 and had two daughters.

During the Monroe administration Florida was purchased from Spain. Agitation over the admission of Missouri as a slave state resulted in the Missouri Compromise of 1820. His name has become inseparably associated with the famous political doctrine which denies to European nations the right to interfere with the existing governments in North and South America, or to colonize any part of the Americas. Known as the Monroe Doctrine, it was first expressed in his annual message of 1823 and has tremendously influenced our attitude toward South American countries and our whole foreign policy right up to the present time.

When President Monroe visited Boston in 1817, he was received with great enthusiasm and was provided with a military escort. It was on thie visit that President Monroe was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 30 June 1817 and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow.

James Monroe retired to Virginia when he left the White House. Later he went to visit with a daughter in New York, where he died on 4 July 1831. He was the third President to die on the nation's birthday. Burial in 1831 was in New York but in 1858 his remains were removed with great pomp to Richmond, Virginia, and re-interred 5 July in the Hollywood Cemetery.

CHESTER ALAN ARTHUR

The 21st President

20 September 1881 to 4 March 1885

An assassin's bullet ended the term of President Garfield and Vice President Chester Alan Arthur moved into the office of President on 20 September 1881. When he retired in 1885 he had won respect for his administration.

Chester Alan Arthur was born in Fairfield, Vermont, on 5 October 1830, the son of a Baptist minister. He graduated from Union College, taught school, and studied law. In 1854 he was admitted to the bar and began to practice in New York City. He married Ellen Lewis Herndon in 1859. He became prominent because of his success in two suits involving negroes. One was the "Lemmon Case" in which he secured a decision that a slave brought into New York in transit between two slave states was free while in New York; the other decision was that negroes were entitled to the same privileges as white people on the street railways of New York City. During the Civil War Arthur served as quartermaster general of the state troops. He was appointed Collector of Customs for the Port of New York in 1871.

He proved to be a capable Chief Executive and reversed his previous policy toward the Civil Service by signing the Pendleton Law for its reform in 1883. During his term of office the Tariff Act of 1883 was passed; the Southern Pacific, the Northern Pacific, and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroads were completed; a treaty with Nicaragua was negotiated to permit us to construct a canal, railway and telegraph line across that country; a reciprocal trade treaty with Mexico was signed; and the Washington Monument was completed and on Saturday, 21 February 1885 it was dedicated. On the occasion of this dedication, in General Philip H. Sheridan's Order, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company was assigned as Honorary Escort to the President of the United States. The President tendered the entire Company a reception at the White House.

In 1882, the Fall Field Day Tour of Duty was celebrated in Marshfield on account of the centennial celebration of the birthday of Daniel Webster. The Company had been invited to do escort duty to the President of the United States. It was on the occasion of this pleasant duty that President Arthur was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 12 October 1882 and was then elected an Honorary Member, the highest distinction which the Company can bestow.

When his term expired, President Arthur retired to New York, where he lived less than two years, dying on 18 November 1886. Burial was in Rural Cenetery, Albany, New York.

Third Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

CALVIN COOLIDGE

The 30th President

3 August 1923 to 4 March 1929

Vice President Calvin Coolidge moved into the office of President just before dawn on 3 August 1923, three hours after the news of President Harding's death reached him at Plymouth, Vermont, where he was visiting his father. The oath of office was administered there by his father, a justice of the peace and country storekeeper.

A farmhouse in Plymouth, Vermont, was the birthplace of Calvin Coolidge on 4 July 1872 and his boyhood and youth were spent there. He graduated from Amherst College, studied law and began to practice in Northampton, Massachusetts. In 1905 he married Grace Anna Goodhue of Burlington, Vermont.

In Northampton he entered local politics and later served in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and Senate. He became President of the Senate; was elected Lieutenant Governor and was Governor in 1919 and again in 1920. In every official post he held, economy and efficiency were the ideals to which he adhered. Governor Coolidge attained national prominence with his handling of the Boston Police Strike in 1919, and in 1920 at the Republican national convention he was nominated for the vice presidency of the United States.

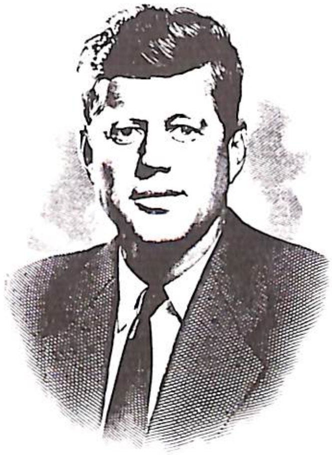
When Calvin Coolidge took over the post vacated by President Harding's death, he continued to function in the calm, judicial way in which he had filled all previous offices. Economy was his watchword and he carried out his principle, worked for tax reduction and the retirement of national indebtedness.

President Coolidge was nominated by the Republicans for a second term in 1924. His administratoin was an era of prosperity in the United States and he was considered for a third term. However, on 2 August 1927 President Coolidge announced, "I do not choose to run for President in 1928." His decision was firm.

As Governor of Massachusetts, Calvin Coolidge had been the Commander-in-Chief of the A&HAC. During his administration he won the high regard and admiration of all thoughtful men and women. He stood firmly for the principles our Company had advocated during its existence. For these reasons, President Coolidge was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC on 5 May 1924 and was then elected an Honorary Member.

In 1929 President Coolidge retired to his home in Northampton, Massachusetts, where he died on 3 January 1933. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Plymouth, Vermont.

Fourth Presidential Member of A.H.A.C.



JOHN F. KENNEDY

Member of the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company

JOHN F. KENNEDY
The 35th President

20 January 1961 to 22 November 1963

John F. Kennedy, at 43, was the youngest man ever elected President and was the first Roman Catholic to hold the office. He was born in Brookline, Massachusetts, on 29 May 1917, the second son in the large family of Joseph P. Kennedy and Rose Fitzgerald Kennedy, the daughter of a former Boston Mayor. He was graduated from Harvard in 1940. His senior thesis was published in the same year under the title, Why England Slept.

In World War II, Lieutenant Kennedy commanded a PT boat in the Pacific and for gallantry in action he received the Navy and Marine Corps Medal. He was elected to Congress in 1946 and to the United States Senate in 1952. He was re-elected to the Senate in 1958. He was married in 1953 to Jacqueline Lee Bouvier of New York. In 1955 he wrote his Pulitzer Prize-winning best seller, Profiles in Courage.

He began his Administration by calling for a "New Frontier" and asked for immediate action on many social and economic problems. The New Frontier brought youth and excitement, tone and style to the White House and Kennedy's warm, vigorous public image was as well known abroad as here at home.

President Kennedy established the Peace Corps and in Southeast Asia he negotiated a truce in Laos and increased American aid to fight the Vietnamese Communists.

During his term, the East Germans aggravated the Berlin situation by constructing a wall across the city in August 1961 to halt the flow of refugees to the West. In 1962 aerial reconnaissance showed missiles and warplanes in Cuba capable of attacking much of the U.S. and South America. Kennedy ordered a naval blockade of the island to prevent further arms shipments.

On 22 November 1963 President Kennedy was shot twice as his motorcade paraded through the streets of Dallas, Texas. The President died within an hour. The accused assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald, was captured the same day, but was himself shot and killed before he could be brought to trial.

John F. Kennedy was enrolled a member of the A&HAC on 16 April 1956 and was elected an Honorary Member on 3 April 1961. On the occasion of his Inaugural as President on 20 January 1961, seventy-five officers and members proudly participated in the Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C.

First A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient George H. Maynard

Private George Henry Maynard
Battle of Fredericksburg, Virginia
13 December 1862

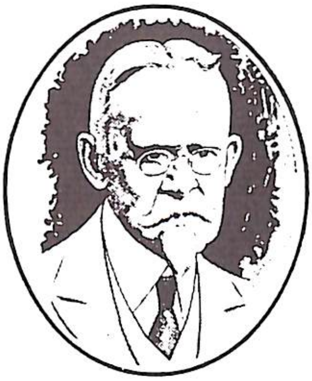
> "A wounded and helpless comrade, having been left on the skirmish line, this soldier voluntarily returned to the front line under a severe fire and carried the wounded man to a place of safety."

George Henry Maynard, born in Waltham, Massachusetts, 2 February 1836, enlisted as a private in the 13th Massachusetts Infantry and was assigned to Company D. He distinguished himself at the Battle of Antietam, when on 17 September 1862, while under fire, he carried two wounded comrades from the firing line to a rear area and then returned to the firing line.

In January 1864, he was commissioned as a Captain in the 82nd Regiment of U.S. Colored Infantry. He was promoted to Brevet Major on 13 March 1865, for distinguished and meritorious service, and was mustered out on 10 September of the following year.

Major Maynard served the A&HAC as 1st Sergeant of Infantry in 1879 and then as 4th Sergeant in 1887. He died in Waltham, Massachusetts, 26 December 1927, at the age of 91 years.

Second A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient Lowell Mason Maxham



Corporal Lowell Mason Maxham
Battle of Marye's Heights, Virginia
3 May 1863

> "This soldier, though severely wounded and in the face of a deadly fire from the enemy at close range, hearing a call to retreat, rallied the colors, rushed bravely forward, and was the first to enter the enemy's works on the crest of Marye's Heights, Virginia, and helped plant his regimental colors there."

Lowell Mason Maxham, born in South Carver, Massachusetts, 6 December 1841, was assigned as a Private in Companpy F of the 7th Massachusetts Infantry. As a Corporal he fought through the Peninsular Campaign of 1862 — at Antietam and Fredericksburg — and then the Chancellorsville Campaign the next year, including the Battle of Marye's Heights. Immediately after this victory, lines were reformed. Maxham was called before his regiment and promoted to Color Sergeant. Not realizing how badly Maxham was wounded, the commander placed the colors in his charge. Maxham took the flag into the second battle of the day at Salem Heights where he was again wounded and carried from the battlefield disabled for life. He was discharged from the service by reason of wounds on 18 August 1863.

Corporal Maxham served the A&HAC as 3rd Sergeant of Infantry in 1891. He died in Boston, Massachusetts, 13 February 1931, at the age of 89 years.

Third A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Francis Snow Hesseltine

Colonel Francis Snow Hasseltine
Matagorda Bay, Texas,
29 and 30 December 1863

> "In command of a detachment of 100 men, he conducted a reconnaissance for two days, baffling and beating back an attacking force of more than 1,000 Confederates, and regained his transport without loss."

Francis Snow Hesseltine, born in Bangor, Maine, 10 December 1833, was a member of the 13th Maine Infantry. He was a lawyer by profession. In Volume 1 of Civil War Papers published by the Loyal Legion in 1893, an article appears written by Colonel Hasseltine entitled, "Amusing The Enemy." He vividly described the action at Matagorda Bay but modestly omitted the fact that he was awarded the nation's highest military decoration.

Colonel Hesseltine served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Newtonville, Massachusetts, 17 February 1916, at the age of 83 years.

Fourth A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Gardner Chandler Hawkins

First Lieutenant
Gardner Chandler Hawkins
The Battle of Petersburg, Virginia
2 April 1865

> "When the lines were wavering from the well directed fire of the enemy, this officer, acting Adjutant of the regiment, sprang forward, and with encouraging words cheered the soldiers on, and, although desperately wounded, refused to leave the field until the enemy's works were taken."

Gardner Chandler Hawkins, born in Pomfret, Vermont, in 1846, joined Company E, 3d Vermont Infantry and rose to the rank of First Lieutenant. His battle citations were numerous. He won the Medal of Honor during the last desperate days of the War. The wound he received resulted in the loss of an eye.

In 1894, he earned the rank of Colonel by serving on the Military Staff of His Excellency Frederic T. Greenhalge, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and Commander-in-Chief of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts.

Colonel Hawkins served as a member of the A&HAC for many years before his death in Winthrop, Massachusetts, 13 December 1913, at the age of 67 years.

Fifth A.H.A.C. Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient George Levick Street, III

LT. Commander George Levick Street, III
Harbor of Qualpart Island, off Korea 14 April 1945

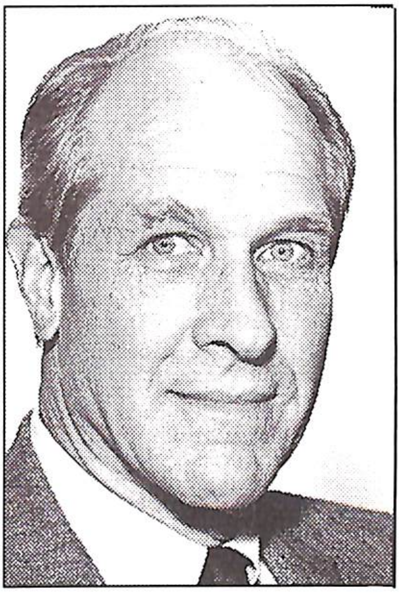
"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as Commanding Officer of the U.S.S. TIRANTE during the First War Patrol of that vessel against enemy Japanese surface forces in the Harbor of Qualpart Island, off the Coast of Korea, on April 14, 1945. With the crew at surface battle stations, Commander (then Lieutenant Commander) Street approached the hostile anchorage from the south within 1200 yards of the coast to complete a reconnoitering circuit of the island. Leaving the ten-fathom curve far behind, he penetrated the mined and shoal-obstructed waters of the restricted harbor despite numerous patrolling vessels and in defiance of five shore-based radar stations and menacing aircraft. Prepared to fight it out on the surface if attacked, Commander Street went into action, sending two torpedoes with deadly accuracy into a large Japanese ammunition ship and exploding the target in a mountainous and blinding glare of white flame. With the TIRANTE instantly spotted by the enemy as she stood out plainly in the flare of light, he orderd the Torpedo Data Computer set up while retiring and fired his last two torpedoes to disintegrate in quick succession the leading frigate and a similar flanking vessel. Clearing the gutted harbor at emergency full speed ahead, he slipped undetected along the shoreline, diving deep as a pursuing patrol dropped a pattern of depth charges at the point of submergence. His illustrious record of combat achievement during the First War Patrol of the TIRANTE characterizes Commander Street as a daring and skilled leader and reflects the highest credit upon his valiant command and the United States Naval Service."

George Levick Street, III, born in Richmond, Virginia 27 July 1913 graduated from the Naval Academy in 1937 and was commissioned an Ensign in June of that year. Besides the Congressional Medal of Honor, he is the holder of the Navy Cross, Two Silver Stars, Presidential Unit Citation, and the Submarine Combat Insignia, all awarded for a series of submarine patrols against the Japanese commencing in early 1942.

Captain Street was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, 27 September 1982. He thus became the fifth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Sixth A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Thomas Jerome Hudner, Jr.



Captain Thomas Jerome Hudner, Jr.
Chosin Reservoir Area of Korea
4 December 1950

"For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty as a pilot in Fighter Squadron 32, while attempting to rescue a squadron mate whose plane struck by antiaircraft fire and trailing smoke, was forced down behind enemy lines. Quickly maneuvering to circle the downed pilot and protect him from enemy troops infesting the area, Lt. (jg.) Hudner risked his life to save the injured flier who was trapped alive in the burning wreckage. Fully aware of the extreme danger in landing on the rough mountainous terrain, and the scant hope of escape or survival in subzero temperature, he put his plane down skillfully in a deliberate wheels-up landing in the presence of enemy troops. With his bare hands, he packed the fuselage with snow to keep the flames away from the pilot and struggled to pull him to his crashed aircraft and radioed other airborne planes, requesting that a helicopter be dispatched with an axe and fire extinguisher. He then remained on the spot despite the continuing danger from enemy action and, with the assistance of the rescue pilot, renewed a desperate but unavailing battle against time, cold, and flames. Lt. (jg.) Hudner's exceptionally valiant action and selfless devotion to a shipmate sustain and enhance the highest traditions of the U.S. Naval Service."

Captain Hudner was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC, on 17 April 1990. He thus became the sixth member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

Seventh A.H.A.C.
Congressional Medal of Honor Recipient
Charles A. MacGillivary

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivary
Woelfling, France
1 January 1945

"Sergeant MacGillivary led a squad near Woelfling, France, on 1 January 1945 when his unit moved forward in darkness to meet the threat of a breakthrough by elements of the 17th German Panzer Grenadier Division. Assigned to protect the left flank, he discovered hostile troops digging in. As he reported this information, several German machine guns opened fire, stopping the American advance. Knowing the position of the enemy, Sergeant MacGillivary volunteered to knock out one of the guns while another company closed in from the right to assault the remaining strongpoints. He circled to the left through woods and snow, carefully worked his way to the emplacement and shot the two camouflaged gunners at a range of three feet, as other enemy forces withdrew. Early in the afternoon of the same day, Sergeant MacGillivary was dispatched on reconnaissance and found that Company I was being opposed by about six machine guns reinforcing a company of fanatically fighting Germans. His unit began an attack but was pinned down by furious automatic and small arms fire. With a clear idea of where the enemy guns were placed, he voluntarily embarked on a lone combat patrol. Skillfully taking advantage of all available cover, he stalked the enemy, reached a hostile machine gun and blasted its crew with a grenade. He picked up a submachine gun from the battlefield and pressed on to within ten yards of another machine gun, where the enemy crew discovered him and feverishly tried to swing their weapon into line to cut him down. He charged ahead, jumped into the midst of the Germans and killed them with several bursts. Without hesitation, he moved on to still another machine gun, creeping, crawling and rushing from tree to tree, until close enough to toss a grenade into the emplacement and close with its defenders. He dispatched this crew also, but was himself seriously wounded. Through his indomitable fighting spirit, great initiative and utter disregard for personal safety in the face of powerful enemy resistance, Sergeant MacGillivary destroyed four hostile machine guns, and immeasurably helped his company to continue on its mission with minimum casualties."

Harry Truman

Sergeant Charles A. MacGillivary was enrolled as a member of the A&HAC on 6 April 1992. He thus became the seventh member to have received the nation's highest military honor.

■ Chief Joseph

For five months in 1877, Chief Joseph and eight hundred "nontreaty" Nez Perce Indians successfully fought off and escaped the forces of the U.S. Army, who were charged with moving Joseph's people to a reservation in Idaho. Believing they had escaped and were close to safety in Canada, the Nez Perces were surprised in the Bears Paw Mountains by General Nelson Miles and his soldiers. After three days of heavy fighting, the Nez Perces surrendered on October 5, 1877; but instead of being returned to Idaho, they were sent to Indian Territory (present-day Oklahoma), where almost half died of sickness. Seven years later, 280 survivors of the ordeal returned to reservations in Idaho and Washington. In his 1893 report to the U.S. Bureau of Ethnology, James Mooney included the army report of Chief Joseph's famous speech to his chiefs before the surrender of the Nez Perces. Joseph died in 1904 at Nespelem on the Colville Indian Reservation in Washington.

I WILL FIGHT NO MORE

I am tired of fighting. Our chiefs are killed. Looking Glass is dead. Toohulhulsote is dead. The old men are all dead. It is the young men who say yes or no. He who led the young men is dead. It is cold and we have no blankets. The little children are freezing to death. My people, some of them, have run away to the hills and have no blankets, no food. No one knows where they are - perhaps freezing to death. I want to have time to look for my children and see how many of them I can find. Maybe I shall find them among the dead. Hear me, my chiefs, I am tired. My heart is sick and sad. From where the sun now stands I will fight no more forever.

THE BOSTON SCHOOL OF MODERN LANGUAGES

BSML
Linguae Mundi
EST. 1925

The Boston School of Modern Languages was established in 1925 to teach international students the English Language.

Over the past 65 years, BSML has educated thousands of students and business executives from a wide diversity of cultural backgrounds. BSML students also gain knowledge of American culture and values, and achieve their individual objectives.

Our Institute is a forerunner in the field of English As a Second Language, and is nationally and internationally recognized.

The economic opportunities arising from changing political environments are causing many people from non-English speaking countries to realize the growing importance of the English language, and what is now termed "The American Experience."

The Boston School of Modern Languages takes pride in fulfilling with excellence this growing need for worldwide communication.

SHRUBS

A Natural Union of Form and Function from Mahoney's

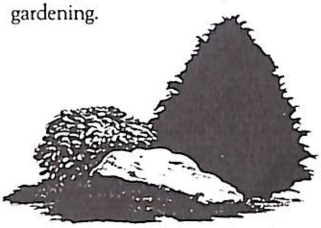
Shrubs are such familiar sights in most homes and gardens that very often the unique features of shrubs often get overlooked. Yet shrubs serve so many valuable functions that it would be hard to imagine landscaping without them.

Shrubbery is most often used as a landscaping foundation, defining space and giving the area shape. It can be used to draw attention to an area or to hide an unsightly view. Shrubs can even control wind and noise coming into your garden.

At Mahoney's, we sell nearly a quarter million trees and shrubs every year. From vividly colorful flowering shrubs to subtle textural ones, we have so many different kinds of shrubs that you're sure to find just the right plant for your needs.

Special care is taken at Mahoney's to insure that you get the healthiest plants possible. In fact, Paul Mahoney still insists on selecting all our shrubs personally, as he's done for the past twenty-five years. He sees to it that we do everything possible to make the plants and shrubs you buy at Mahoney's the highest quality plants in New England. We fertilize them every day and carefully monitor their growth, making sure that they stay full and healthy.

We have so many different kinds of shrubs to choose from, it's a little overwhelming. But at Mahoney's, we've simplified plant buying with easy-to-read signs to help you locate your shrubs and informative care sheets that come with every plant. We even have convenient information booths with trained horticultural staff ready to answer any questions and offer expert advice on all phases of gardening.



So come to Mahoney's and find out about shrubbery, or any other aspect of landscaping or gardening. Whether you're a seasoned pro or a first time gardener, you'll find Mahoney's a great resource.

RICHARD D. ARMSTRONG, JR., P.C.

Richard is a labor and employment law litigation partner representing clients in both the private and public sectors. He counsels employers in avoiding unnecessary legal disputes with government agencies, labor unions and employees, former and current. As a graduate of Boston College Law and Georgetown Law Center, Richard D. Armstrong, Jr. has established a legal base in both Boston and Washington, D.C. Before joining Peabody & Brown, Richard served as counsel to a member of the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D.C. During that time, he authored both majority and dissenting opinions for Board members.

Richard has practiced before the National Labor Relations Board, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Massachusetts State Labor Relations Commission, the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, and the Massachusetts and the United States Departments of Labor. He maintains a strong litigation practice in labor and employment law cases in the Federal and Massachusetts Courts and has appeared in both grievance and interest arbitrations before the American Arbitration Association and other independent fact finders.

Richard is certified under Massachusetts law as a mediator and is registered as such with professional mediation and conciliation organizations. He has served as a hearing officer under the rules of the Massachusetts Civil Service Commission and has lectured extensively on labor and litigation issues for the Massachusetts Bankers' Association, the American Association of Industrial Management, the Massachusetts Council of Human Service Providers, Inc., the Personnel Council of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, the South Shore Chamber of Commerce, the Massachusetts Business Institute and the Massachusetts Credit Union Association. Richard is Vice Chairman of the Board of South Shore Mental Health Center, a member off the Board of Catholic Charities of Boston and a member of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta. He is a member of the Massachusetts Association of Mediation Programs and several professional organizations, including the Industrial Relations Research Association. He has also served as a member of the Labor Law Council of the Massachusetts Bar Association and the American Bar Association's Committee on Collective Bargaining.

Dear Fellow Ancient,

Juan Carlos has asked me to thank you for the support that enabled him and several of his friends to have maxillofacial surgery so that they could live normal lives.

I also add my personal thanks to his. You have allowed me and the other team members to go to Guayaquill, Ecuador. Without your help this would not have been possible.

Gratefully yours,

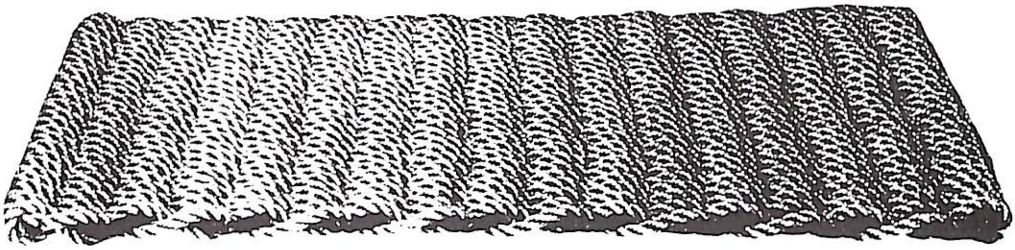
Doormats of Distinction



• Durable • Mildew Proof • Insect Resistant • Reversible
• Floats • Washable • Colorfast • Resistant to Salt Water

Our outdoor mat will withstand the heaviest traffic, trap more dirt, mud, snow, or sand before anyone walks through your door.

This unique mat which is handcrafted in the U.S.A., is made from Polypropylene rope that features thousands of fibers which remove dirt or sand particles from shoes or boots and yet cleans easily. Just shake or hose it clean with water.

Our mat is mildew and insect resistant. Unlike natural fibers, it will not retain water or harbor insects. Unlike other mats our mat is reversible. After many years of use on one side, just turn it over and it will continue to do the job it was designed to do.

Because the material is both durable and highly resistant to salt water, it makes an excellent boat or pool mat. This mat even floats. You won't find a better quality mat available in decorator colorfast colors. To be used only on non-skid surfaces, the size is approximately 18 X 30 inches.

RELIVE 1692 – The mood is set from the moment you enter the Witch Dungeon. First, you will witness the live reenactment of the witch trial of Sarah Good.

Then, you will go the the dungeon below, where, some 300 years ago, over 150 accused witches and warlocks awaited execution.

During your stroll through the recreated dungeon and Old Salem Village, you will meet some of the notorious and famous people, who were prominent during the witch hysteria.

The Witch Dungeon highlights bizarre bits of history and little known facts about the witches and their accusers. You are guaranteed a unique educational experience, with a chill or two.

MILITARY MUSEUM and LIBRARY COMMITTEE

The story of the restoration of Faneuil Hall must include "THE MOVE" conducted by the Museum and Library Committee and the Curator. Starting in 1989 by cleaning out the attic of its contents, the Committee and the Curator created a system whereby all artifacts were accounted for, properly packed, shipped to a designated storage area and then returned to Faneuil Hall. All of these steps needed many hours of planning to work with schedules of outside vendors. The Committee also worked with the contractors as the building was being restored. Their efforts got the Company back to its restored Headquarters in a timely and efficient manner.

The Committee and the Curator are now working on conservation programs for the artifacts, planning exhibits and future programs to enhance the Museum and the Company.

HE FELL INTO THE CATERPILLAR CLUB!

When you travel the skies for the long hours of a Fall Field Day Tour of Duty, or pause for a refresher after an Ancient meeting, you will discover intriguing footnotes in your comrades' life stories.

One finds that under the Ancients' uniform or blazer a keen business executive, an attorney-at-law, an electronics expert, an educator, or - quite possible - "a military hero."

In earlier Sergeants' Yearbook, we have paid homage to our recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor. However, from time to time we have discovered among our comrades still other veterans with exceptional military service. They survived memorable moments on the fields of battle, the skies, or seas of wartime.

A veteran of such a caliber is LCOL. Edward E. Myllmaki. Edward's experiences began with the 464th. Bombardment Group of the U.S. Air Corps as Second Lieutenant. He remembers his dangerous flights in a B-24 Liberator above the Ploesti oil fields of Rumania. Where again and again his aircraft bombed the targets so strategic to the Nazi supply lines.

Edward remembers his 17th. mission when he was forced to bail-out of the Liberator, and as he tells it, he landed in a briar patch! He remembers: The flak was so deadly that when his B-24 was shot down, he found himself a member of the Caterpillar Club! (The Club for pilots who have to "hit the silk" to save their lives.)

There's much more to Edward's story - his imprisonment, his daring escape, and his recapture!

His story is an airman's saga: a corporate pilot for a Manhattan bank, flying executives throughout the world; an air traffic controller for 35 years; a member of the Air Force Reserve after the war, retiring in 1956 as a Full Colonel; and a pilot of his own Cessna.

In addition to his exploits in the sky, Edward never forgets his Finnish heritage. He is one proud, vocal "to-the-point" Finn! Needless to say, his favorite Fall Field Tour of Duty Trip was to Finland, and Russia.

So the next time that you rub shoulders with Edward, just mention Ploesti or the Caterpillar Club, and he may (dependent on his mood at the time) give you some concept of his book that he is now writing about his memoirs as a serving American soldier!

Editor & Chairman of The Yearbook

THE ENGLISH CONNECTION

Look at the membership list in this Sergeants' Yearbook, and you will see the obvious plurality of the U. S. surnames with global derivations.

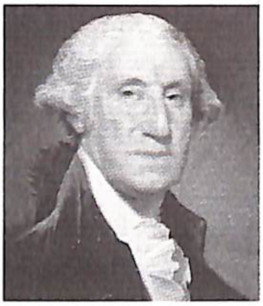
In the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, we are particularly mindful of the English connection. We contemplate our beginnings 100 years after the founding of the Honourable Artillery Company of London in 1538. It is now the custom of the London Association of our Company (Major General James A. Lynch, Jr., Chairman) to attend the St. George's Day Dinner of the Honourable Artillery Company in London each year!

Continuing the commitment of probing the past, let us reflect on a few intriguing little know historical trivia. Actually, they are not trivial at all, but you decide for yourself.

The site of each of these footnotes to British-American history is Whitehaven, England - a west coast port with ancient origins.

The items quoted here come mainly from writings of Harry Fancy, Curator of the Whitehaven Museum. He shows the ties of three distinguished Americans -- George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, and John Paul Jones to Whitehaven.

THE WASHINGTON CONNECTION



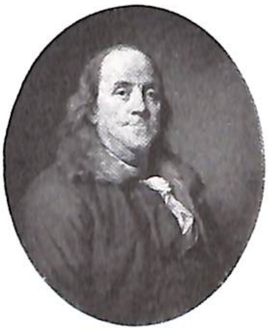
How about this family tree? John Gale, an Irish nonconformist, came to Whitehaven in 1663. One of his grandsons, George Gale visited Virginia in the British colonies where he met, and married Mildred Warner Washington, a widow with three young children.

The family returned to Whitehaven, England. Mildred died there in childbirth in 1701. A dispute over her will resulted in her children being taken back to Virginia in 1704.

One of her sons, Augustine, became the father of George Washington. Surely in this story of the Gales and Washingtons is demonstrated the unpredictable course of American history.

This historical memorabilium should be of particular interest to our Irish comrades!

THE FRANKLIN CONNECTION



United States history attributes to Benjamin Franklin's statesmanship - a major role in the success of American bid for independence.

Franklin spent several years in Britain before war became inevitable, and in 1772 he visited Whitehaven. There he met William Brownrigg, the leading scientist of the area. Franklin descended one of the local pits with Brownrigg, and speculated about the fossils found in the workings.

There is much to unearth in this port which goes back to the glacial onslaughts of the Ice Age, especially from the first century A. D. with the Roman Empire in Britain. Roman forts and settlements have been fascinating archaeologists in their excavations over hundreds of years, and they also fascinated Benjamin Franklin.

Rome being the Capitol of Italy (at the time of the Roman Empire it was claimed all roads led to Rome), as a result it was fashionable towards the end of the later years of B. C., and the earlier years of A. D. to refer to the "Italian People" as "Romans."

It is interesting to note that Roman culture and influence brought the Christian religion, various forms of democratic government, and laws to the British Isles. The Romans ruled Britain for over five centuries - long before the Saxons arrived on the shores of Britain in 700 A. D. seeking refuge. This historical report should be of particular interest to our Italian comrades!

THE JOHN PAUL JONES CONNECTION

John Paul, later known as John Paul Jones, is called the "Father of the American Navy." He was born on the Scottish side of the Solway in 1747, and was apprenticed to a Whitehaven tobacco merchant to learn the fine art of seamanship at the age of thirteen. he learned the seafaring trade well, and for several years he survived many a drama.

His first voyage took him to Barbados and Virginia. Later when his merchant sponsor went bankrupt, he was given the post of third mate aboard the "King George," a slave ship.

Still later he took command of another slave ship ("Two Friends") our of Kingston, Jamaica.

He loathed the "abominable trade," and became a seaman aboard the rig, "John." When the captain and mate died of yellow fever, John Paul now only 21 years old took command as captain.

Twice John Paul was accused of manslaughter of crew members. He was exonerated in one case, and he jumped-ship in order to avoid the trial for the other charge.

When he reached America he added Jones to his name. He bore a grudge against his own country, England, for the rest of his life. At the commencement of the War for Independence, he sided with the colonists, and became a captain in the newly formed Congressional Navy.

Jones' spectacular exploits against British vessels included a daring raid on the 22nd. of April, 1778 on the Port of Whitehaven - a raid which still remains the last occasion upon which an enemy power has made a landing on the English mainland!

This raid was planned to destroy the British ships in the harbour, but the raid did not succeed because the British were informed of the plan by a defector from Jones' crew.

This incident affected British moral, and the raid on Whitehaven may well have helped America win its independence.

CONCLUSION

As one more footnote, your Yearbook Editor cannot resist citing the DeMarco connection. During the late eighteenth century, The DeMarco Merchants exported and imported their products to and from the Port of Whitehaven.

Among the products familiar to American are "Demerara" sugar - it seems that we had the sugar to sweeten the American colonists' tea! American and British sailors drank "Demerara" rum known by the British Admiralty as "grog" - a pint of which was a standard daily ration for sailors of the British Admiralty for many decades!

There is a long saga about other Whitehaven connections. You are invited to explore them yourself on your next trip to England.

Stop by the Whitehaven Museum and Art Gallery for a rich, and remarkable sampling of history.

COLUMBUS REMEMBERED

We know so little about Columbus, the man, yet we know so much. Mystery surrounds his birth, enigmas haunt his deeds and motivations, and legends enlarge his persona.

To his son Fernando, he was well built, with a long face, aquiline nose, and blonde hair that was white by the time he reached thirty.

So much for his appearance. As to his birthplace, the facts are minimal, the possibilities numerous. Several nations, impressed with his mark on world history, like to claim him as their own.

Some place his ancestry in a family of Spanish Jews who settled in Italy, and converted to Catholicism. Still others claim that he came from Byzantine nobles on the Hellenized Mediterranean island of Chios. Whereas others say that his origins were Spanish. Like Shakespeare, his birth is shrouded in mystery, but it is generally believed that Columbus was born into the Colombo family of Genoa about 1451.

As we contemplate the mariner in this quincentennial anniversary of his remarkable voyage and discovery, your yearbook editor cannot refrain from noting the bronze figure that gazes seaward, seated on a rock directly across from his residence on Commonwealth Avenue. The figure is Samuel Eliot Morison, leading historian of Columbus' life and voyages, himself a man of the sea, a Navy admiral, and a Bostonian. In his biography of Columbus, Morison supports Columbus' birth in Genoa.

This SERGEANTS' YEARBOOK does not offer the space to allow expert research to tell once again what the son of a wool-weaver accomplished.

The data which Morrison used as a syllogism to determine various aspects of Christopher Columbus' biography were all again conceptions based on assumptions of earlier European historians.

Twenty-First Century researchers are now beginning to realize plagiarizations, and personal assumptions to be common tendencies of earlier scribes, who were later called historians!

Therefore, as we search for authentic data to determine the legend of this man's persona, we find ourselves in a special euphoria of wonderment.

Turn to Morison's Admiral of the Ocean Sea or to Columbus and the Age of Discovery by Dor-Ner and Scheller - a dynamic record of history's supreme event - in the words of Dor-Ner and Scheller:

> "As the sailors of Nina, Pinta, and Santa Maria held their vessels offshore and waited for the dawn of October 12, 1492, none of them could have understood the importance of their voyage, or anticipated the global changes that would follow in its wake.
> What they were about to inaugurate was not just a new highway of trade but a new era in human history."

As Bostonians, we gained particular insight into the courage mandated for such a voyage when we gazed upon the replica fleet of his three small caravels in the parade of tall ships in Boston Harbor last October, 1992.

As members of The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, so steeped in American history, we celebrated the anniversary of Columbus with great pride.

Finally, as believers in adventure, travel, and destiny, we look ahead to the unknown - glorious discoveries of the next 500 years.

A Wartime Drama with an “Ancient” Hero Reaches the Editor’s Desk

As Editor and Chairman of the SGTS 92/93 Yearbook, I have been particularly mindful of events, places, and people significant in “our year.” And Italy has figured prominently in this time of our Sergeancy. Five hundred years ago an intrepid mariner from Italy reached our shores, the event observed in the Sesquicentennial of Columbus’s discovery of America. And recently across my desk came another event centered in Italy, this time during World War II. The account, written several decades ago, deals with the father of my fellow Sergeant James E. Clair, Jr. We are proud to quote this piece of military history in the Sergeants 92/93 Yearbook.

“Shot in the Dark Pays Off"

Hub GI Finally Awarded Italy Medal

by Stanley Carr

“Nineteen Years ago a young Boston GI fought shoulder to shoulder with Italy's crack mountain troops in an all-out battle to drive the Nazis out of the Apennines. He was Corporal James E. Clair, who had landed at Anzio with the Fifth U.S. Army and then detached to Italy's mountain fighters.

Time and again young Clair displayed extreme courage in the bloody encounters with the Nazis. Italian officers lauded him for his battlefield valor. Subsequently, after a particularly hazardous assignment behind the German lines, the Italian officers nominated him for their nation’s Cross of War Medal, one of the highest military honors it can bestow.

When the war ended, Corporal Clair returned to Boston with the citation authorizing award of the medal to him by the Italian government—but no medal. His return to Boston this week was far different than his return 19 years ago, lugging a duffel bag on his shoulder. Today, at the age of 39, he is General Manager of Thompson Buick, Centre St., West Roxbury, Ma., and a Weston resident. He is the first American ever to receive the award. It consists of a silver cross set on a blue and white ribbon.

“It was a great honor to realize the Italian government had gone to so much trouble to locate the records and for the chief of staff to make the presentation,” Clair said. During the award ceremony, General Aloia likened the presentation to “opening the tomb of a known American soldier.”

Canadian-born Clair said he was assigned to the Italian Ski Troops, the Alpine Corps, because of his prowess as a hunter. The special squad to which he was attached scouted German gun emplacements and fought to open supply lines.

Last summer, while making plans for a European tour with Boston's Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company, the "missing medal" popped up in his memory. Noting the tour would include Rome, he sat down and wrote a letter to the Commanding General, Italian Army, Rome. He recalled incidents leading up to his receiving the paper citation and pointed out that the medal itself had never been awarded to him. He thought of it as a "shot in the dark," presupposing that records of the award had long since been destroyed. But, he was amazed to learn from the Italian and U.S. State Departments that the old records had been unearthed, including the one awarding him the Cross of War.

When Clair arrived in Rome with the Ancients, he was escorted to the Italian Defense Ministry and, with the traditional pomp and ceremony, was awarded the coveted medal by General Alberto Aloia, Chief of Staff of the Italian Army."

We Sergeants 92/93 offer tardy, but much deserved accolades to our Ancient hero!

History

The Honourable Artillery Company of London

Chartered in 1537

The oldest unit in the British Army is a Regiment of part-time Volunteers. Henry VIII granted a Charter in 1537 to an already-existing Guild of St. George to encourage the use of bows and arrows and hand-guns. Its members fought in Henry VIII's French Wars, defended Calais for Queen Mary, helped to defeat the Armada, officered the London Trained Bands in the Civil Wars, and stood ready to defend England against Napoleon. More recently, 1914-18, it provided three battalions of infantry and five artillery batteries which fought in France, Flanders and the Middle East, and trained 4,000 officers for other units. In the Second World War, its four Artillery Regiments fought in North Africa, Italy, France and Northern Europe. The Infantry Battalion became an Officer Cadet Training Unit, and subsequently sent 3,800 officers to other units.

The Honourable Artillery Company is the oldest regiment in the British Army and the senior unit of the Territorial Army. It was the first regiment to be granted by the City of London the privilege of marching through the streets with drums beating, colours flying and bayonets fixed.

Originally, solely an infantry unit, it commenced training in the handling of field guns in 1781 and maintained these two arms until 1973.

Today, the Regiment comprises three operational Squadrons which, in time of war, provide artillery support to the British Army of the Rhine, two Home Service Force Companies and a Gun Troop which are UK based, and a Band and Corps of Drums. In addition,the Regiment carries out ceremonial duties in the City of London, providing guards of honour and firing salutes from the Tower.

The HAC Detachment of the Metropolitan Special Constabulary continues the Company's tradition of maintaining law and order between the citizens of London; and the veterans who belong to the Company of Pikemen and Mustketeers retain the link with the mayoralty by serving as the Lord Mayor's bodyguard.

Armory House was built in 1735 with money raised by the Members.

The H.A.C. is the only military unit where members pay for their own Drill Hall, Armoury and Parade Ground. The Queen's Room and Ante Room are on the ground floor. On the next floor is the Court Room and Long Room, in which dinners are held. Here hang the Colours and also the Stars and Stripes of the daughter regiment, the Ancient & Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts, founded by a member of the H.A.C. in Boston in 1638.

Gentlemen,

Please accept this plaque as a token of our appreciation for your support with this year's Toys for Tots program. The party you hosted enabled us to provide toys for hundreds of children who otherwise would have received nothing at Christmas. Your help made it possible for us to provide toys for over 45,000 children this year.

Thanks again for your help with our program, and my apologies for the delay in recognizing your contribution, it took a while to find a donor for the plaques.

Sincerely,
Joe Mahoney

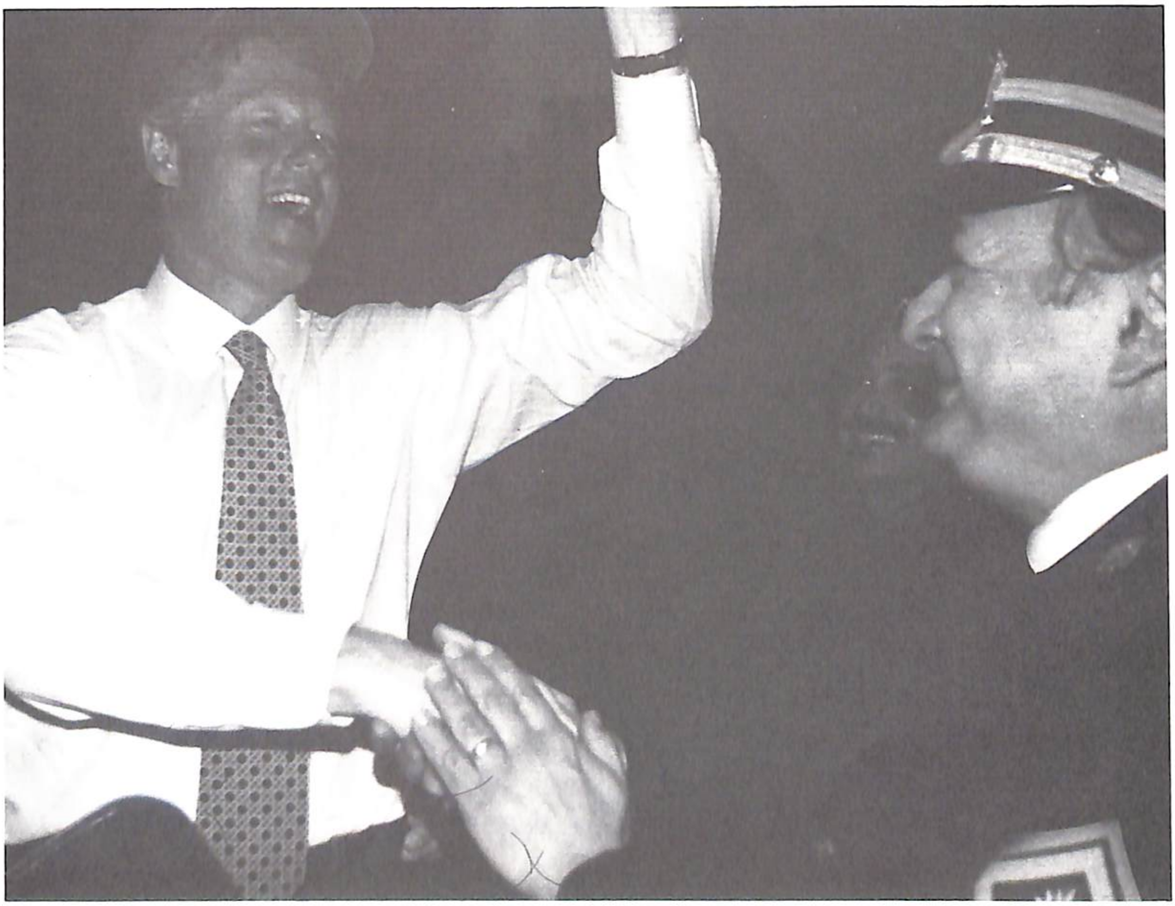
THE PRESIDENT VISITS BOSTON..............

APRIL 25, 1993



President William Jefferson Clinton is shown greeting Major Ronald J. Itri, Sergeant of Artillery

TRIBUTE

The trip to South Africa was indeed an extra ordinary adventure.

The arrival at the airport from Johannesburg to our hotel, our messing arrangements while at the hotel, the fact that we all were in a country in the middle of political turmoil, the delicacy that we had to show in marching in our blazers instead of our field uniforms, displaying a low key pattern of our presence, our visitation to the local church and former British military compounds, the dinner parties where the Mayor of Johannesburg and other dignitaries of the Capitol were our guests, and the great speeches of recognition and thanks offered to us, and at the same time being able to lay a wreath of goodwill in commemoration of our visit, was all done in great form, and an absolute show of diplomatic recognitions.

Our departure from Johannesburg to the safari camps, and all the special arrangements for our daily jeep tours to observe the African jungle and wildlife, our comradry at sun-down, the quality of our vitals, and all the rapport that was developed among us before our departure to Cape Town.

The tours in Cape Town, and our visitations to various historical areas of profound South African interest, before our final departure to Rio de Janeiro where we had a variety of conditions for R & R, the visits to various well known panoramic areas of interest, our dinner parties, the jewelry purchases for our loved ones, and our final departure back to Boston.

Gentlemen, this was indeed a tour that took all kinds of planning, and everyone who went on this tour joins us the sergeants to extend our sincere appreciation, and thanks to our Captain Commanding Col. Leonard J. Sacco.

Thank you, Captain!

We will always remember this event with fond memories for many years to come.
